

Fruit Logistica 2023

Berlin, Germany
February 8-10, 2023

Europe has a large and mature market for fresh fruit and vegetables, with stable demand overall. The need for year-round availability and the interest in new exotic produce maintain Europe's continuous dependence on external suppliers. With a population of more than 500 million consumers, Europe is responsible for 45% of the global trade value of fresh fruit and vegetables. Government health authorities continue to conduct campaigns promoting healthy eating. Fresh fruit and vegetable consumption are highest in southern European countries, but rapidly increasing in Scandinavian countries as well as Ireland and the UK.

In 2022, Fruit Logistica hosted 2,000 exhibitors and over 40,000 trade visitors. Fruit Logistica covers every single sector of the fresh produce business and provides a complete picture of the latest innovations, products and services at every link in the international supply chain. It offers superb networking and contact opportunities to the key decision-makers in every sector of the industry. The Fruit Logistica covers the whole Berlin exhibition center with almost 30 large halls. A great number of fresh produce buyers from the European continent attend this tradeshow and in recent years, the show's popularity has extended to other regions. Fruit Logistica does not only cover the large German market for fresh produce but other countries within Europe, as well as the Middle East.
